

G2 Ops Listed Among Fastest-Growing Companies in the Nation for Eighth Consecutive Year

Virginia Beach, VA, USA (20 August 2025) – G2 Ops, a leading provider of model-based systems engineering, cloud architecture, and cybersecurity solutions, has been named to the prestigious Inc. 5000 list of the fastest-growing private companies in America. This marks the eighth consecutive year G2 Ops has earned this honor, underscoring its remarkable consistency, resilience, and growth in a dynamic economic environment.

Inc. 5000 recognizes businesses that have demonstrated extraordinary growth despite economic uncertainty, rising capital costs, and competitive talent markets. G2 Ops' sustained expansion reflects its commitment to innovation, excellence, and customer-focused solutions – serving customers across the Department of Defense (DoD) and the broader government and private sectors.

Founded on the principle of delivering superior engineering services through collaboration and cutting-edge technology, G2 Ops continues to drive digital transformation and security across mission-critical industries. From 2021-2024, the company has reported a staggering 111% growth, more than doubling its staff while continuously recruiting top-tier talent to meet demand for its services.

"G2 Ops' continued recognition on the Inc. 5000 is a reflection of the dedication and talent of our incredible team," said Tracy Gregorio, CEO of G2 Ops. "I'm grateful for their hard work and commitment to supporting our nation's security. This honor is also a tribute to small businesses everywhere—the backbone of our economy—whose innovation and perseverance drive growth, create jobs, and keep America moving forward."

The 2025 class of the Inc. 5000 is comprised of 5,000 rapidly scaling companies responsible for generating over $300 billion in revenue and providing over 1 million jobs. Past Inc. 5000 honorees include pedigreed industry leaders such as Microsoft, Meta, Dell, and Oracle.

"The Inc. 5000 is one of the most important things we publish each year – a real-time bellwether of American business," Mike Hofman, editor-in-chief of Inc., said in a press release. "At a moment when entrepreneurs are navigating economic uncertainty, labor shifts, and inflation, this list is powerful proof of innovation and resilience."
